

*The Heritage, Mission, Vision, and Values Curriculum
Competency, Learning Outcomes, and Student Action Steps Literary Traditions*

Competency:

TCU Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of, and sensitivity to, our shared literary heritage.

Learning Outcomes	Student Action Steps
Students will demonstrate an understanding of literature as it reflects society and/or the individual.	Students will examine how literary texts reflect society. Students will recognize how broad contextual understandings of literary works apply to contemporary life and cultural situations. Students will analyze the interrelationships of the individual, cultural milieu, and society in literary texts.
Students will demonstrate an understanding of literature as it influences society and/or the individual.	Students will examine how literature influences society, both in the historical past and/or in the present. Students will analyze the interrelationships of the individual, cultural milieu, and society in literary texts.
Students will demonstrate familiarity with one or more disciplinary approaches to the study of literature.	Students will scrutinize literary traditions historically, textually, theoretically, aesthetically and/or comparatively. Students will recognize the characteristics of a critical approach to the study of literature.