

*The Heritage, Mission, Vision, and Values Curriculum
Competency, Learning Outcomes, and Student Action Steps
Cultural Awareness*

Competency:

TCU graduates will demonstrate a critical understanding of cultural phenomena.

Learning Outcomes	Student Action Steps
Students will demonstrate knowledge of one or more disciplinary approaches to issues of cultural differences.	Students will analyze and synthesize information and arguments related to cultural differences from a range of sources specific to a disciplinary tradition. Students will examine theoretical and methodological approaches to cultural differences specific to a disciplinary tradition.
Students will demonstrate an ability to analyze diversity within (or) across cultures.	Students will examine the role of social factors, e.g., race, gender, ethnicity, class, sexual orientation, etc., in shaping cultural reality. Students will explore a range of perspectives that address the construction of differences and similarities. Students will analyze cultural assumptions, interpretations, and/or opinions relating to issues of diversity.
Students will demonstrate an understanding of the interconnectedness of society, culture and individual identity.	Students will analyze cultural and social constructions of individual identity. Students will examine the consequences for both the individual and society that arise from cultural differences. Students will examine how interaction between personal and social identities is manifested in everyday life.